RAIL REFUSED.

Representative Saunders and others appeared before Judge Campbell of Franklin county Circuit Court yesterday, at Rocky Mount, and applied for bail for Dr. J. H. Cahill, the Rocky Mount dentist, who some weeks ago shot and killed a farmer named Smithers at the depot in that town. Bail was offered in any amount up to $100,000.
Dr. Cahill attacked Smithers and emptied the contents of two pistols, killing him, but not until Smithers had fired five shots at the dentist, one of which took effect, wounding him slightly, and also wounding a bystander.
Judge Campbell refused to grant bail, but allowed the prisoner greater liberty, and he will be allowed to go out under the escort of the sheriff or a deputy. Dr. Cahill will invoke the unwritten law in his defense.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs.
Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

MUST NOT COLLECT FRANCHISE TAX.

Another aggressive step was taken by counsel for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway Monday in its fight to avoid payment of the State franchise tax levied against the road.
Hill Carter, of counsel for the railroad company, filed a fifth amended and supplementary bill in the proceedings pending in the city circuit court, asking the court to issue an order prohibiting Morton Myrie, auditor of public accounts, from taking any action toward collecting the franchise tax for 1908.

Common law proceedings were also instituted by Mr. Carter, for the railroad company, against the state corporation commission, petitioning the court to set aside and correct the assessment.
The prohibitory order was allowed by Judge Scott and process served on the State auditor. (Richmond News Leader.) remedy contains no cocaine, mercury nor yield to treatment in a short time. All drug-
